The Tower Chorale Announces New Season

The Tower Chorale's 27th season promises to delight and entertain audiences. Under the direction of Patrick Godon, the Chorale is preparing for an exciting concert season.

"Time for Joy"

Friday, November 30, 2012, 7:30 PM and Saturday, December 1, 2012, 8:00 PM at St. John of the Cross Church, 5005 Wolf Road, Western Springs, 60558. Thanksgiving and Christmas: two of the most hectic times of the year! The first concert of our 27th season will illuminate the holidays with a burst of joy that is bound to uplift your spirit. You'll hear sacred and secular Christmas songs in a wide variety of arrangements. We will be accompanied by Dennis Zimmer on both organ and piano, a brass quartet, and joined by the St. John of the Cross Youth Choirs.

"Mozart the Great"

Sunday, March 3, 2013, 3:00 PM at Divine Infant Church, 1601 S. Newcastle, Westchester, 60154. Mozart's glorious C Minor Mass, "The Great," ranks among his greatest compositions ever written. It exists as a testament to love. Complete with double choruses and full orchestra, this concert marks the first performance of the work for The Tower Chorale. Not to be missed!

"Songs My Mother Taught Me"

Saturday, May 11, 2013, 7:30 PM and Sunday, May 12, 2013, 3:00 PM at Nazareth Academy Auditorium, 1209 West Ogden Ave., LaGrange Park, IL 60526. If you want to treat your mom to something unique for Mother's Day, bring her to this concert! We'll explore a wide range of music that celebrates various perspectives of motherhood. We guarantee this will be one of the most memorable Mother's Days your mom will ever have.
